V. UPDATES ON WORK LIST

- Beach Access Memorial Benches - Ms. Will reported that memorial benches could not be located on beach accesses per Scott Baker, Director of Public Works. She noted that the new porch at Town Hall could be a possible location. Ms. Will offered to contact Town Clerk Mayher regarding Chair Greer addressing Council at the next meeting.
- Community Garden - Ms. Weeg indicated that she would follow up with Council Member Stockton.
- Citizens of Distinction - Chair Greer provided a draft of the form. Discussion was held concerning recognizing an individual, a business or both. Consensus was reached to include individuals only. Chair Greer questioned whether the categories limited recipients. Discussion was held concerning specific categories and which ones to retain, change or delete. Ms. Weeg questioned whether CRAB should be responsible for recommending a nominee. Chair Greer stated that she would make changes to the form, present it to Council and ask for direction.

VI. CRAB MEMBER ITEMS & REPORTS

Ms. Weeg mentioned that a couple of people called the paper to inquire about putting a park on the golf course property. Discussion ensued.

Chair Greer noted that the Woman's Club charged $75.00 to rent their building.

Ms. D'Onofrio discussed teaching an acting class at Newton House and showing movies.
