V. UPDATES ON WORK LIST

- Beach Access Memorial Benches - Ms. Condon will follow up with Ms. Will regarding design and material.
- Community Garden - Ms. Condon indicated that she would contact Henry from the Mosquito Commission and Public Works Director Scott Baker for information on the property next to the Woman's Club.
- Citizens of Distinction - Discussion was held concerning contents of the form, whether it should be awarded to a person as opposed to a business, creating a cover letter, full-time residents, part-time residents, property owners, current residents and including a category for volunteers. Chair Greer stated that she would make changes and bring the documents back to the next meeting for review.

VI. CRAB MEMBER ITEMS & REPORTS

Ms. D'Onofrio-Halladay commented that the Woman's Club building seemed underutilized. Ms. D'Onofrio-Halladay and Ms. Kemp will contact the Woman's Club to discuss the possibility of using the building for future activities. They will report back next month.

Ms. Condon indicated that she had received complaints regarding the condition of the beach for the past two to three weeks. She stated that she called Town Hall daily and took pictures of the mess. Ms. Condon commented that turtles could not make it through the muck. She reported that the wooden railings at beach accesses were in bad condition and splintering. Chair Greer encouraged Ms. Condon to attend a Town Council meeting.
